MEDICINAL.

POINTING THE WAY.
When a brave admiral in war time goes into an enemy's harbor he knows that the life of every man in the fleet depends upon his skill and courage. It is a tremendous responsibility; and yet he cannot feel any more deeply and truly than a conscientious physician feels his responsibility for the lives of those who are dependent upon his professional care and skill. He feels that his duty demands more than a mere routine, stereotyped interest in his patients; he feels that his work is a serious matter; that it is often a question of life and death.

"You have many heart-felt thanks for your kindly advice to me in my sickness," writes Mrs. Clara Nelson, of Pine Heights, Los Angeles, Cal., in a cordial letter to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. "Also for your book which I received two years ago, and which I could not do without. It is all the Doctor I could not get. I had female trouble and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, together with the advice given in his book, cured me of five years' sickness. I thought my days would not be long, but your kindness and medicine would not let me die."

For more than thirty years Dr. Pierce has occupied a grand and most unique position for benefiting his fellow beings: As chief consulting physician of the great Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, almost countless thousands have sought his services and advice both in person and by letter.

"He is one of the best men in the world," said the late President Garfield, "and he is at the head of one of the best medical institutions in the world." Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free for 21 one-cent stamps to pay the bare cost of mailing, or for handsome cloth-bound copy, 31 stamps. He makes no charge for consultation by mail; he only requests that sufferers will state their cases to him fully, freely, and in perfect confidence. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, 661 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

CAME FROM JERUSALEM TO WED.

From Jerusalem to New York is a long way to travel on a love quest. Yet Miss Simcha Rosenthal completed the journey to meet the man who had fallen in love with her photograph and who had promised to wed her. The meeting, the wooing, and the truth were matters of short duration.

Charles Harris, who had summoned the "mystery of the black-eyed visitor" as he had been enthusiastic over her pictured self. But love did not last. Harris, who owns a small business in a Connecticut town, disappeared. Miss Rosenthal on Monday told a lawyer to begin an action for breach of promise.

"I shall go back to Jerusalem," she said, "but first I would like to see Harris suffer as much as he has made me suffer."

A year ago Harris went to New York to buy some goods for his store. While there he met a friend, Julius M. Rosenthal. A brother of Mr. Rosenthal was in the store at the time Harris called, and they showed him the photograph of a pretty girl—their sister—whose home was in Jerusalem. Harris admired the picture.

A few days later Harris returned and told the Rosenthals about his prosperous business and his pretty home. Then he declared he had fallen in love with the face in the photograph, and if the Rosenthals would bring their sister to this country he would marry her.

Money was sent to Jerusalem, and Simcha went to New York. Harris was ardent in his wooing, and for five months he called on her almost daily. Then Miss Rosenthal heard that Harris had told some friends that although his fiancée had many good qualities, he felt he would not be happy with her.

The next time Harris called Miss Rosenthal told what she had heard. He admitted that he had ceased to love her. The girl has not seen Harris since. She consulted Lawyer Sachs. He gave her a bond to have signed, so that she could have Harris arrested for alleged breach of promise the next time he came to New York.

NATIONAL PHARMACEUTISTS.

The American Pharmaceutical Association held two business sessions in Richmond yesterday.

It was decided to hold the next meeting in St. Louis, and the following officers were elected:

President, John F. Patton, of York, Pa.
First vice president, J. H. Beall, of Soio, O.
Second vice president, John W. Gayle, of Frankfort, Ky.

Third vice president, E. A. Riddiman, of Nashville, Tenn.
Secretary, John Caspari, Jr., of Baltimore.

Treasurer, S. A. B. Sheppard, of Boston, Mass.

The consideration of reports consumed most of the two sessions. Upon the adjournment of the association at noon those interested in the establishment of national colleges of pharmacy throughout the country held a meeting, and Mr. Henry F. Hinson, of Philadelphia, was chosen temporary chairman in charge of this branch.

The most important committee report made was one urging the co-operation of the association in an effort to secure legislation from Congress which will compel the adoption of the metric system by pharmacists throughout the country.

Prevented a Tragedy.
Timely information given Mrs. Geo. Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors, but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' Drug Store.

An Ancient Belief.
The ancients believed that rheumatism was the work of a demon within a man. Any one who has had an attack of sciatic or inflammatory rheumatism will agree that the infection is demonic. It has enough to warrant that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast out demons, but it will cure rheumatism, and hundreds bear testimony to the truth of this statement. One application relieves the pain, and this quick relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by all druggists.

"DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the finest pills I ever used"—D. J. Moore, Millbrook, Ala. They quickly cure all liver and bowel troubles.

To Cure Constipation Forever.
Take Chamberlain's Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. Is C. C. G. fail to cure, druggists refund money.
